

TELEPHONE-INTERVIEW CONTACT SHEET.

Your benefit under your employer’s scheme needs medical underwriting before we’re able to consider full cover. To start the medical underwriting we need information about your health and pastimes, and our preferred way to collect this information is by a telephone interview. The telephone interview team will contact you at the time shown below to complete the interview. You can email or post this form; however, as email may not be a secure way to transfer information, you may prefer to send us the form by post instead. See the contact us section for our address.

We may pass your information to a company called Medicals Direct who sometimes carry out telephone interviews on our behalf.
