

ADDITIONAL INVESTMENT APPLICATION FORM

BEFORE YOU START

This application form can be used to make additional contributions/transfer payments into an existing Portfolio Plus Pension (investing in insured funds).

If you want to exercise the option to allow self-investment, access your pension pot or transfer in a pension pot already being used for income drawdown, please contact us. You will need to complete additional forms.

HOW TO COMPLETE YOUR APPLICATION

When completing this application form please ensure you answer all appropriate questions and note the following:

- Please use BLOCK CAPITALS in all of your answers.
- To help you, important information has been highlighted using the i symbol.
- Where we mention other documents, their names are in bold. They're available from your adviser or us.
- If you make a mistake, correct the error by crossing out (do not use correction fluid) and initialling the change.
- Please note, we cannot accept a transfer payment arising from:
 - a pension pot where only part of the pot is being used for income drawdown,
 - an arrangement representing benefits for a beneficiary of an original Member.
- To protect you and us from financial crime, we may be required to verify the identity of new and sometimes existing customers. This may be achieved by using reference agencies to search sources of information relating to you (an identity search). This will not affect your credit rating. If this fails, we may need to approach you to obtain documentary evidence of identity.
- Please make sure you read our Privacy Policy in Part 8.
- An explanation of all terms, benefits and options within this application form can be found in the glossary on page 2, or in our Portfolio Plus Pensions Adding to your Plan brochure or Member's Booklet. We sent the Member's Booklet to you when your plan started. It is also available on request.

Not all of these options will be available from every pension pot.

C REGULAR CONTRIBUTIONS – To be completed if you wish to pay regular contributions

2.4 At what rate would you like your regular contributions to be automatically increased by each year? (You may only choose ONE of the options.)

- None In line with the annual increase in Average Weekly Earnings[†]
- In line with the Retail Prices Index[†] By a fixed percentage*

*If by a fixed percentage, how much?

% Only whole numbers up to a maximum of 10%

[†] Contributions will only increase each year in line with the index/factor. If there is a decrease in the index/factor then your contributions will remain the same.

This is only available for regular monthly or annual contributions paid by Direct Debit. Your contributions can be indexed differently from your employer's contributions.

Note 1. The net amount is the amount you want to pay. Your contract is for the gross contribution, which is the amount stated plus basic rate tax relief (at the rate applicable when you pay this contribution). If you make a single contribution from age 75 you will not receive tax relief on your contribution.

Note 2. The net amount is the amount you want to pay. Your contract is for the gross contribution, which is the amount stated plus basic rate tax relief (at the rate applicable when you pay your first regular contribution at this level). If basic rate tax changes at any time, the net amount you pay by Direct Debit will change. If you pay by cheque, you will need to amend the payments you make. If you do not change your net contribution, the gross contribution will change affecting your projected benefits. If you contribute from age 75 you will not receive tax relief on your contributions. As your contract is for the gross contribution the amount you pay will increase.

Note 3. If you are paying by cheque, please make it out for the amount stated and make it payable to Legal & General. For a building society cheque or banker's draft, your name must appear on the front of the cheque, or on the back of the cheque accompanied by the building society's or bank's official stamp and signature. If a joint account holder, cheques should be drawn by the applicant.

Please tick here to confirm this form is attached to this application.

TRANSFERS OF EXISTING PENSION POTS:

To be completed if you wish to transfer the value of an existing pension pot into your plan.

We can accept the transfer of a pension pot that has already been fully used for income drawdown. If you wish to transfer in a pot that is currently in Capped Income Drawdown, we will convert it to Flexi-Access Drawdown upon receipt. This could affect your Annual Allowance. Please see your Portfolio Plus Pensions Adding to your Plan brochure for details.

If you are applying to pay additional transfer values into your existing Portfolio Plus Pension plan then you must pay a minimum additional amount as follows:

- A transfer value of £1,000 in respect of a pension pot not being used for income drawdown.
- A transfer value in respect of a pension pot used for income drawdown of the greater of £25,000, or £37,500 less 75% of the existing Portfolio Plus Pension pot (if the existing Portfolio Plus Pension pot is not used for income drawdown).

PART 5 – DEATH BENEFITS

You should complete this part if you wish to nominate a beneficiary or set up a trust. If you have already made a nomination you only need to complete this part if you wish to change whom will receive any death benefits if you die. By completing this part you will replace any previous nomination you have made.

However, please note that the nominations for pension pots being used for income drawdown and those not being used for income drawdown are separate. For example, if you have previously made a nomination for your unused pension pot, this will not apply to any pension pot being used for income drawdown and so you would need to complete 5.2 on page 12.

A UNUSED PENSION POT – nomination of beneficiaries for a pension not used for income drawdown

5.1 If you die before you take your benefits and a lump sum becomes available, who do you want it paid to? (This is known as a nomination of beneficiary.)

To trustees to be held on trust Please enclose the original trust documentation, which we will return to you.

The way benefits can be paid if you die depends on a number of factors.

Legal & General will pay any death benefits at its discretion taking into account the range of potential beneficiaries outlined in your Member's Booklet.

If you make a nomination, Legal & General will not be bound by this form but will take this into account when deciding who to pay the benefit to.

Under current rules, if you die before age 75, any benefits paid to your beneficiaries will normally be tax free, although the value of your pension pot will be tested against your remaining Lifetime Allowance which could result in a tax charge.

If you're aged 75 or over when you die any benefit paid to your beneficiaries will be taxed in the same way as earned income. There is no Lifetime Allowance test.

In some circumstances there could be an additional inheritance tax liability.

B USED PENSION POT – nomination of beneficiaries for a pension pot being used for income drawdown

5.2 If you die while taking income drawdown, who would you like the remaining used pension pot paid to?

- Information we collect about you or receive from other sources. This could be information you provide to us electronically (through our website or an online portal, for example), information we get from your online browsing activity, information from a third party or from publicly available sources such as social media platforms or the electoral register (e.g. to detect fraudulent claims). We may also receive information if you have been dealing with a financial adviser or have been introduced to us by another company (e.g. a bank, insurer or building society) or your employer (or their financial adviser). For more information on how we use cookies, please refer to our cookie policy: legalandgeneral.com/privacy-policy/cookies.html

HOW DO WE USE YOUR INFORMATION?

We use personal information that we hold about you:

- To carry out our responsibilities resulting from any agreements you've entered into with us (e.g. to underwrite and administer your policy, including processing claims) and to provide you with the information, products and services that you've asked from us.
- To provide you with marketing information about services and products we offer across the Legal & General group which may be of interest to you. Based on your marketing preferences, we may deliver this information by post, telephone, e-mail, SMS or personalised online marketing via our own systems such as My Account, social media platforms and/or other third party websites e.g. YouTube. Please note that if you choose not to receive online marketing, you will not see personalised messages using your personal data, however you may still see generic online advertising. We will not sell your data to third parties for them to market to you. We may also send marketing to you using our "legitimate interests", please see below for further information.
- To tell you about changes to our services and products.
- To comply with any applicable legal or regulatory requirements (including "know your customer" checks, or to comply with any applicable regulatory reporting or disclosure requirements).
- For carrying out market research, statistical analysis and customer profiling to help us to improve our processes, products and services and generate new business (e.g. to understand digital behaviours, identify financial attitudes and develop more engaging communications).
- To define our actuarial, pricing and underwriting strategies.
- To run our business in an efficient and proper way. This includes testing our systems, managing our financial position, business capability, planning, communications, corporate governance and audit.
- For any other purpose that we've agreed with you from time to time.

When you apply for a product or to receive a service from us, the application form you fill out or the resulting contract may contain additional conditions relating to the way we use and process your personal information. These will apply in addition to the above uses.

In some cases, we may use systems to make automated decisions (including profiling) based on the personal information we have, or collect from others. These may include:

- The prevention and detection of fraud.
- Providing quotes, calculating premiums and underwriting decisions.
- Personalising the content and design of communications and online services (such as My Account).
- Determining when to provide tailored servicing communications (e.g. changes in your personal circumstances or lifestyle), and the appropriate channel(s) to use.

USING YOUR INFORMATION IN ACCORDANCE WITH DATA PROTECTION LAWS

Data protection laws require us to meet certain conditions before we're allowed to use your personal information in the way we describe in this privacy policy. We take these responsibilities extremely seriously. To use your personal information, we'll rely on the following conditions, depending on the activities we're carrying out:

- Providing our contracts and services to you: We'll process your personal information to carry out our responsibilities resulting from any agreements you've entered into with us and to provide you with the information, products and services you've asked from us, which may include online services.
- Complying with applicable laws: We may process your personal information to comply with any legal obligation we're subject to.
- Legitimate interests: To use your personal data for any other purpose described in this privacy policy, we'll rely on a condition known as "legitimate interests". It's in our legitimate interests to collect your personal data as it provides us with the information that we need to provide our services to you more effectively. We may use your information to:
 - Carry out market research and product development, which can include creating customer demographics and/or profiling. We may sometimes work with carefully selected third parties to do this, for example using advertising services provided by organisations such as Google or Facebook and may share data with them, which could be combined with the information they hold about you.
 - Continue to send marketing information, via post only, to customers who purchased a product before 25 May 2018 and did not opt-out, until such time as they have reviewed their marketing preferences (which can be done at any time).
 - Develop and test the effectiveness of marketing activities.
 - Develop, test and manage our brands, products and services.
 - Study and also manage how our customers use products and services from us and our business partners.
 - Manage risk for us and our customers.

This requires us to carry out an assessment of our interests in using your personal data against the interests you have as a citizen and the rights you have under data protection laws.

The outcome of this assessment will determine whether we can use your personal data in the ways described in this privacy policy (except in relation to marketing, where we'll always rely on your consent). We'll always act reasonably and give full and proper consideration to your interests in carrying out this assessment.

- Consent: We may provide you with marketing information about our services or products where you've provided your consent for us to do so.

You may opt out of marketing at any time by e-mailing or telephoning your customer servicing team. Alternatively, you can also use the Contact Us section of our website: legalandgeneral.com/existing-customers/contact-us/. You can also manage your marketing preferences on our customer self-service systems, My Account.

- Special category (sensitive) data: Where you have consented, we will process any medical and health, racial and ethnic origin, genetic and biometric or sex life and sexual orientation information you have provided, and any other sensitive information obtained from a third party (e.g. your GP or other medical professional), solely for the purposes of allowing us to underwrite and administer your policy and deal with claims.

- Criminal Conviction Data: Where you have consented, we will process this type of information solely for the purposes of allowing us to underwrite and administer your policy and deal with claims.

Please be aware that the personal information you provide to us, and which we collect about you, is required for us to be able to provide our services to you and without it we may not be able to do so.

HOW LONG DO WE KEEP YOUR INFORMATION FOR?

We'll keep your personal information in accordance with our internal retention policies. We'll determine the length of time we keep it for based on the minimum retention periods required by law or regulation. We'll only keep your personal information after this period if there's a legitimate and provable business reason to do so.

WHO DO WE SHARE YOUR PERSONAL INFORMATION WITH?

We'll only disclose your information to:

- Other companies within the Legal & General group, third-party suppliers, contractors and service providers for the purposes listed under HOW DO WE USE YOUR INFORMATION? above.
- Selected third parties, so that they can contact you with details of the services that they provide, where you have expressly opted-in or consented to the disclosure of your personal data for these purposes.

- In the event that we sell or buy any business or assets, in which case we'll disclose your personal data to the prospective seller or buyer of such business or assets.
- If we, or substantially all of our assets, are acquired by a third party, in which case personal data held by us about our customers will be one of the transferred assets.
- If you have been dealing with a financial adviser, we'll provide information about your product and, where appropriate, with other information about your dealings with us, to enable the adviser to give you informed advice.
- For employer sponsored schemes, we may share some details of your plan with your employer and any professional advisor(s) they appoint on their or your behalf to service and provide accurate financial advice about the scheme.
- In order to enforce or apply the terms of any contract with you.
- If we're under a duty to disclose or share your personal data in order to comply with any legal obligation or regulatory requirements, or otherwise for the prevention or detection of fraud or crime.
- To protect you and us from financial crime, we may be required to verify the identity of new and sometimes existing customers. This may be achieved by using reference agencies to search sources of information relating to you (an identity search). This will not affect your credit rating. If this fails, we may need to approach you to obtain documentary evidence of identity.
- If you make a claim, we'll share your information (where necessary) with other insurance companies to prevent fraudulent claims.
- If applicable, Legal & General Surveying Services may use a third party surveyor to carry out the survey or valuation of your property.

Additionally, your information, including special category and criminal conviction data, may be disclosed to our reinsurer and to any other insurance company to whom you apply for products or services.

If you've been introduced to us by another company (such as a bank, insurer or building society), we may share your information with them to enable them to:

- Carry out market research, statistical analysis and customer profiling.
- Where you have consented, send you marketing information by post, telephone, e-mail and SMS about their products and those of carefully selected third parties.
- Assist you with your application process (aggregator and price comparison websites only).
