

DEED OF APPOINTMENT OF ADDITIONAL TRUSTEES. (TRUSTEES VERSION)

IMPORTANT NOTES – before completing the Deed of Appointment of Additional Trustees, please read the following notes.

1. This documentation has been produced for consideration by you and your legal advisers. The legal and any tax effects of the Deed will depend on your individual circumstances and Legal & General (as defined in Clause 3.3 of Part B of this Deed) and its advisers accept no responsibility for ensuring that the Deed meets your requirements.
2. Under this Deed the Trustees can appoint Additional Trustees of the Trust. Before this Deed there must be no more than three Trustees, and upon completing this Deed, there must be no less than two and no more than four Trustees. Please check the Trust Deed as to the minimum number of Trustees to exercise particular powers.
3. This Deed is only for use in circumstances where the Settlor/Donor/Grantee has died or where the Trust does not nominate someone to have the power to appoint New Trustees. If the Settlor/Donor/Grantee is alive and the Trust gives them this power, please use the “Settlor/Donor/Grantee Version” of this Deed.
4. A copy of this Deed should be sent to Legal & General as soon as it has been completed.
5. Please note that Legal & General will only accept instructions from Trustees who have had their identities verified. We may need to also confirm the identity of other individuals relating to the Trust. We may do this by using reference agencies to search sources of information; this will not affect credit ratings. If this identity search fails, we may ask the parties for documents to confirm their identities. By signing this Deed, all parties to this Deed have consented that we can verify their identity and that, if required by Legal & General, the Trustees will take all reasonable steps to obtain for Legal & General evidence of identification for any of the Beneficiaries of the Trust.
6. Legal & General has drafted this Deed to reflect the law as at 1 January 2010. Legal & General and its advisers cannot accept any responsibility for loss, damage or other claim that may arise from the use of this Deed or the way in which you complete it. We therefore strongly recommend that you consult your own legal adviser before proceeding.
7. Use CAPITALS and black or blue ink throughout. If you make a mistake while completing the Deed, please correct the error by crossing out (do not use correction fluid) and all the Trustees should initial by the change.
8. If the appointed trustee is resident for tax purposes anywhere other than the UK you must also complete the Trust/Entity Self-Certification Declaration Form and send this to us together with your completed Deed.
