IMPORTANT NOTES – before completing the Absolute Trust Deed, please read the following notes.

1. This documentation has been produced for consideration by you and your legal advisers. The legal and tax effects of the Trust will depend on your individual circumstances and Legal & General (as defined in clause 9.3 of Part B of the Trust) and its advisers accept no responsibility for ensuring that the Trust meets your requirements.
2. Ensure that you fully understand the terms of the Trust and how it works. The beneficiaries are chosen at outset and cannot be changed in the future. See the Absolute Trust technical guide for further details. If you are in any doubt about the terms, it is your responsibility to seek legal or tax advice as appropriate.
3. It's important we hold up to date and complete details about the trustees of this policy, as well as the lives covered by it, to comply with money laundering regulations. So if your details change at any point please let us know. Keeping this information up to date will help to avoid a delay if a claim is made, giving extra peace of mind. Our privacy policy explains how we will use the information you provide and can be found by visiting legalandgeneral.com/privacy-policy.
4. You should also ensure you have read and understood all the literature relating to your chosen policy for this Trust.
5. This Trust is designed for use with Legal & General's protection life insurance policies for family protection and Inheritance Tax planning. It is not designed to be used for business protection arrangements (for example, key person insurance or shareholder protection), Relevant Life Plans or pension term assurance (for example, Tax Efficient Life Insurance Plan (TELIP)). Please contact Legal & General for other trust deed templates that we offer.
6. This is a split trust which means that death benefits will be held for the beneficiaries (known as the 'Gifted Benefits'). While critical illness or terminal illness benefits as defined in the policy documentation will be held for you (known as the 'Retained Benefits'). You can choose to give away these critical illness or terminal illness benefits by signing the box in clause 7 of Part B of the Trust deed so these benefits are also for the benefit of the beneficiaries.
7. This Trust can be used for new or existing Legal & General protection policies.
8. The donor is the person who is creating the Trust and also has the power to make most changes to the policy. The trustees will be the legal owners of the policy and it is the trustees who would make a claim for any policy proceeds. You should think carefully as to who you name as trustee. They should be somebody who will carry out your wishes. It is important you replace any trustees who have predeceased you or that you have lost contact with.
9. It is generally a good idea to have at least two trustees at any time. Care should be taken when choosing trustees. The people appointed must be over 18 years of age and of sound mind. The trustees should be people who the donor believes will act in the best interests of the beneficiaries. It is also generally a good idea for them to be resident in the United Kingdom for tax reasons. Solicitors and accountants can act as trustees but they will charge for their services.
10. In creating this Trust or by paying premiums you may be making exempt transfers or potentially exempt transfers for Inheritance Tax purposes. For further information see the Absolute Trust technical guide.
11. By signing this deed, and if required by Legal & General, the trustees agree to take all reasonable steps to obtain for Legal & General evidence of identification for any of the beneficiaries of the Trust.
12. Legal & General has drafted this Trust to reflect the law as at 1 January 2022. Legal & General and its advisers cannot accept any responsibility for loss, damage or other claim that may arise from the use of this Trust or the way in which you complete it. We therefore strongly recommend that you consult your own legal or tax adviser before proceeding. Failure to understand the terms of the deed may affect its suitability and effectiveness.
13. Use CAPITALS and black or blue ink throughout. If you make a mistake while completing the Trust, please correct the error by crossing out (do not use correction fluid) and the donor and the trustees should initial the change.
14. Completed trust deeds should be sent to: Trust Team, Legal & General Assurance Society Ltd, City Park, The Droveaway, Hove, East Sussex BN3 7PY.
15. If the trust, trustees or settlor/donors are resident for tax purposes anywhere other than the UK you must also complete the Trust/Entity Self-Certification Declaration form and send this to us together with your completed deed.
16. The personal information we have collected from you will be shared with fraud prevention agencies who will use it to prevent fraud and money-laundering and to verify your identity. If fraud is detected, you could be refused certain services, finance, or employment. Further details of how your information will be used by us and these fraud prevention agencies, and your data protection rights, can be found by accessing this link: cifas.org.uk/fpn.
Legal & General and other organisations may also access and use this information to prevent fraud and money laundering, for example, when: checking details on applications for credit and credit related or other facilities, managing credit and credit related accounts or facilities, recovering debt, checking details on proposals and claims for all types of insurance, checking details of professional business clients, job applicants and employees.
