Death claim notification – Mastertrust

We'll need you to fill in and return this form before we pay benefit. The form is in four parts:

PART A is filled in by the policyholder. It allows us to confirm the death and check the claim against the insurance policy cover.

PART B is filled in by the employee's next of kin, the policyholder or the legal representative looking after the estate. Our Mastertrust rules let the trustees choose who to pay benefit to. This part gives details to help them with their decision.

PART C confirms the documents we need to process the insurance claim, and help the trustees identify potential beneficiaries.

PART D provides an overview of our Mastertrust claims process.

(Please fill in using BLOCK CAPITALS)

Once you've filled in this form, please check it through to make sure you've confirmed everything we need. We may return the form if any important details are missing.

You'll need to return the completed form with the documents we've asked for in PART C. If you don't have all the documents just yet, you can submit the claim form with the remainder to follow. While we cannot pay benefit until we've received all the documents we need, we can start validating your claim and identifying beneficiaries.

Occasionally we'll need a few extra details to help us validate the insurance claim, for example, medical or attendance records. We'll tell you if we need more information.

The details given in PART B allow the trustees to start identifying beneficiaries. It's usual to approach the next of kin for further information and documents to confirm relationships or dependency, and to support benefit payments. The extra detail needed will depend on the deceased's circumstances.

PART A - To be completed by the policyholder.

Our Mastertrust rules allow the trustees to choose who to pay the benefit to. Please provide as much detail as you can in PART B to help the trustees with their decision. As the trustees look through the information you provide, we may need to clarify points or ask for further documents and detail. We'll contact the relevant person if this is needed.

Please answer each question without making assumptions. If you don't know an answer, please tell us and we'll investigate further.

9. Fraud prevention

The personal information Legal & General collects from you and/or your employer will be shared with fraud prevention agencies who will use it to prevent fraud and money laundering and to verify your identity.

If false or inaccurate information is provided and fraud is identified, details will be passed to fraud prevention agencies. Law enforcement agencies may access and use this information. We may also share information about you with other organisations and public bodies, including the police and we may check and/or file your details with fraud prevention agencies and databases.

If fraud is detected, you could be refused certain services, finance or employment. Further details of how your information will be used by us and these fraud prevention agencies can be found by accessing this link, www.cifas.org.uk/fpn

Legal & General and other organisations may also access and use this information to prevent fraud and money laundering, for example, when:

- Checking details on applications for credit and credit related or other facilities.
- Managing credit and credit related accounts or facilities.
- Recovering debt.
- Checking details on proposals and claims for all types of insurance.
- Checking details of job applicants and employees.
- Checking sources of income and tax details.

Legal & General and other organisations may access and use from other countries the information recorded by fraud prevention agencies. Please contact our Group Financial Crime department if you wish to receive the relevant details of the fraud prevention agencies:

Group Protection, Legal & General Assurance Society Limited, Knox Court, 10 Fitzalan Place, Cardiff CF24 0TL

Legal & General may also check the details of other parties related to your contract, including verification of identity. This includes beneficiaries, trustees, settlors, third party premium payers, executors or administrators of your estate, parties with power of attorney and any other beneficial owner.

PART C Documents needed.

Please send us all the documents we've asked for in PART C. If you're missing a few, you can submit the claim form with the remaining documents to follow. We may not be able to finalise all the payments if these documents remain outstanding.

Certificates issued by a Registrar are protected by Crown copyright and cannot be lawfully copied without HMSO consent. Examples of these certificates include birth and death certificates.

To ch	neck the insurance claim and pass the insurance benefit to the trustees we'll need:
	A copy of this completed claim form.
	The death certificate.
	For a death outside the UK, we may ask for additional documents such as an official translation of the death certificate, and either:
	• the repatriation documents and details of the receiving coroner's office or funeral home if the body has been returned to the UK; or a completed death abroad questionnaire if the body remains outside the UK.
To he	elp the trustees decide who to pay the benefit to, we'll also need:
	An Expression of Wish form that the member may have completed to indicate who they'd like to receive the benefit.
	A copy of the Will the member may have set up.
	If the member had a partner, a document confirming a partner's relationship to the member, for example, a marriage or registered civil partnership certificate. For an unmarried partner we'll need proof of financial dependency.
	The decree absolute if the member had divorced.
	The original birth or adoption certificates for each of the member's children. If a child is aged 18 or over and financially dependent, we'll also need proof of the dependency.
If the	e member didn't leave a partner or children, we'll also need:
	The member's original full birth certificate or certificate of adoption.
	If applicable, proof of any financial dependency a parent, brother, sister or person named in PART B question 6, had on the member.
	The member's brothers' and sisters' birth certificates, or certificates of adoption.

PART D How we process claims under our Group Life Mastertrust

When you set up a policy under our Mastertrust you don't have to worry about how to split the benefit between potential beneficiaries, completing identity checks or filling in HM Revenue & Customs reports and forms about the benefit payments. The experienced trustees appointed to look after our Mastertrust will have this in hand.

Our processes are driven by information and we ask you to provide as much detail as you can up front. This gives the trustees the best chance of completing their investigations and paying benefit quickly.

1. Starting the claims process

To start the process we'll ask for:

- The Mastertrust claim form which is split into four parts:
  - PART A is completed by the policyholder. This helps us check the claim under the insurance policy.
  - PART B can be completed by the member's next of kin, the policyholder, or the legal representatives looking after the estate.
     The trustees will use this information to help identify the potential beneficiaries and prepare registered scheme reports.
  - PART C confirms the documents you'll need to send us. We use these to check the insurance claim and work out who may receive the benefit from the Mastertrust.
  - PART D provides an overview of the process.

2. Checking the insurance claim

We'll first check the claim against the policy terms. If we don't have any queries, we'll usually pay valid claims into the trustees' bank account within five days of receiving the completed claim form and death certificate.

We'll confirm when this step is complete.

3. Identifying the beneficiaries and how the benefit may be split

We'll then pass on all the claim details to our Mastertrust Team who support the trustees. They will help identify who to pay the benefit to, and how it may be split if there's more than one beneficiary.

They will review the information provided on the claim form alongside an Expression of Wish form and a Will that an insured member may have completed. This helps them better understand the insured person's circumstances and target any additional information needed. They'll write to the person best able to provide these extra details, usually the next of kin.

The level of information we need and the time it takes to investigate will depend on how simple or complicated the member's personal circumstances were at the time of death. Our Mastertrust Team recognise it's a difficult time for the next of kin and are sensitive to their loss.

We try to keep contact to a minimum, and only ask for additional detail if it's needed to complete the investigation.

The trustees will review the information gathered and confirm a decision.

While our Relevant Life Mastertrust usually pays benefit without any deductions for tax, exit and periodic tax charges may apply. After asking the legal representatives for a few details, our Mastertrust Team will work out if these tax charges apply, and how much is due. Each charge will be no more than 6% of the benefit value, and the trustees will use part of the benefit to pay these taxes.

4. Paying the beneficiaries

The Mastertrust Team carry out a few final checks before they arrange the payment. These help prevent financial crime and make sure benefit is paid to the correct bank accounts. For each beneficiary they'll need:

- birth certificates (if not previously supplied),
- documents confirming a beneficiaries relationship to the member, for example, a marriage certificate (if appropriate and not previously supplied),
- · bank account statements showing the beneficiary's name, account number and sort code, and
- a payment instruction confirmation form completed by the beneficiary.

The Mastertrust Team will set up payments direct to the beneficiaries once we have these final details.
