Life assurance benefit

Please send original certificates issued by a Registrar, for example birth and death certificates. These are protected by Crown copyright and cannot be lawfully copied without the consent of HMSO.

Please send us an original certificate confirming the death if:

- The member died outside the UK.
- You're sending us this form within 10 working days of the death being registered.
- Only a coroner's interim certificate has been issued.
- Claims exceed £1.25 million.

For most other circumstances we're able to confirm deaths without seeing the original death certificate. If we cannot, we'll ask you for the original certificate and explain why it's needed.

For Dependants' Pension, we need the following:

Original birth certificate of each beneficiary, including children.

Certificate of marriage/ civil partnership (if the birth name on the certificate is different from that on the beneficiary's birth certificate, additional documentation should be enclosed, e.g. previous marriage certificate(s), deed poll)

Confirmation of financial dependency (if applicable)

If the beneficiary is not the Spouse/ Registered Civil Partner or a Child (aged under 18) of the deceased, confirmation of financial dependency in the form of a statement signed by the policyholder is required.

3 Life assurance benefit

The benefit being claimed must be in accordance with the contract(s) of insurance. You'll need to make sure the deceased was eligible for cover and, the benefit claimed is calculated in accordance with the definition of Scheme Earnings agreed for insurance purposes. If this is the first claim under the policy or the Trustee bank details have changed, please provide the bank details on the policyholder's headed paper.

4 Dependant's pension

Please photocopy this page or download the relevant form from our website if you're claiming benefit for more than one dependant. Please provide the following information to dependants' pension beneficiaries:

- To protect against financial crime, we may need to confirm the dependant's identity from time to time. We may do this by using reference agencies to search sources of information about the dependant (an identity search). This will not affect the dependant's credit rating. If this identity search fails, we may ask the dependant for documents to confirm their identity.
- Legal & General's Privacy Policy, which will help a dependant understand what we do with the information we collect. The Privacy Policy is available at: <https://legalandgeneral.com/privacy-policy/>

To avoid delays you need to accurately complete the dependant's full name, date of birth and address details. Incomplete details will result in delays and the need to request further information from the beneficiaries at a later stage to confirm their identity.

5 Fraud prevention

The personal information Legal & General collects from you and/or your employer will be shared with fraud prevention agencies who will use it to prevent fraud and money laundering and to verify your identity.

If false or inaccurate information is provided and fraud is identified, details will be passed to fraud prevention agencies. Law enforcement agencies may access and use this information. We may also share information about you with other organisations and public bodies, including the police and we may check and/or file your details with fraud prevention agencies and databases.

If fraud is detected, you could be refused certain services, finance or employment. Further details of how your information will be used by us and these fraud prevention agencies can be found by accessing this link, www.cifas.org.uk/fpn Legal & General and other organisations may also access and use this information to prevent fraud and money laundering, for example, when:

- Checking details on applications for credit and credit related or other facilities.
- Managing credit and credit related accounts or facilities.
- Recovering debt.
- Checking details on proposals and claims for all types of insurance.
- Checking details of job applicants and employees.

Legal & General and other organisations may access and use from other countries the information recorded by fraud prevention agencies. Please contact our Group Financial Crime department if you wish to receive the relevant details of the fraud prevention agencies: Group Protection, Legal & General Assurance Society Limited, Four Central Square, Cardiff, CF10 1FS Legal & General may also check the details of other parties related to your contract, including verification of identity. This includes beneficiaries, trustees, settlors, third party premium payers, executors or administrators of your estate, parties with power of attorney and any other beneficial owner.

6 Declaration and undertaking by policyholder

The benefit claimed should be payable in accordance with the contract(s) of insurance.

I have checked to make sure the deceased was eligible for cover and any earnings-related benefits are calculated using the Scheme Earnings we agreed for insurance purposes.

I agree to provide 'Legal & General's Privacy Policy' to the beneficiaries of a dependant's pension.
