

Care Concierge

Here to help you better understand, find and fund adult care and support.

Brought to you by Legal & General through your employer – because providing you comprehensive wellbeing support is a priority. Included as part of their Group Protection policy with us.

Knowing what care you, or a family member, needs isn't easy. Our Care Concierge resource is designed to help you understand, find and fund the care options most suitable to meet your needs. As well as a range of digital tools, it provides a personal telephone guidance, so depending on the level of support available, you can speak to the same person throughout your journey, whether it be at a point of crisis or just looking to plan ahead."

Head of Product & Proposition, Group Protection

How Care Concierge can make a difference to you

Our motivation is to help you minimise the impact on your health and wellbeing, when you're faced with navigating care for adult loved ones.

With increasing numbers of adults needing care and support, the potential impact upon your life and work also faces considerable increase. Research shows us that:

of employees take time off work due to an elderly care need for a loved one will leave employment due to a caring role

Staff members affected are usually in the 45-65 age bracket, and at the peak of their working careers. Recognising there could be a big impact upon your wellbeing and your work, your employer has put this support in place. If you found yourself in this situation without it, this could lead to lowered morale and high stress levels. And ultimately if you needed to leave your job altogether, it could result in you having to cope with a loss of income and wellbeing benefits, as well as adapting your day to day routine.

Care Concierge could support you in the following ways:

- To fully understand the care options open to you
- To fully understand the funding options available
- By greatly reducing time taken to find the right care solutions for your loved ones
- Increasing your capacity to deal with the situation at hand
- Heightening your morale and wellbeing
- Empowering you to feel informed

What does Care Concierge provide?

Putting care provision in place for a loved one can be a daunting and confusing experience, that could cause significant disruption in your life. Our resource can help.

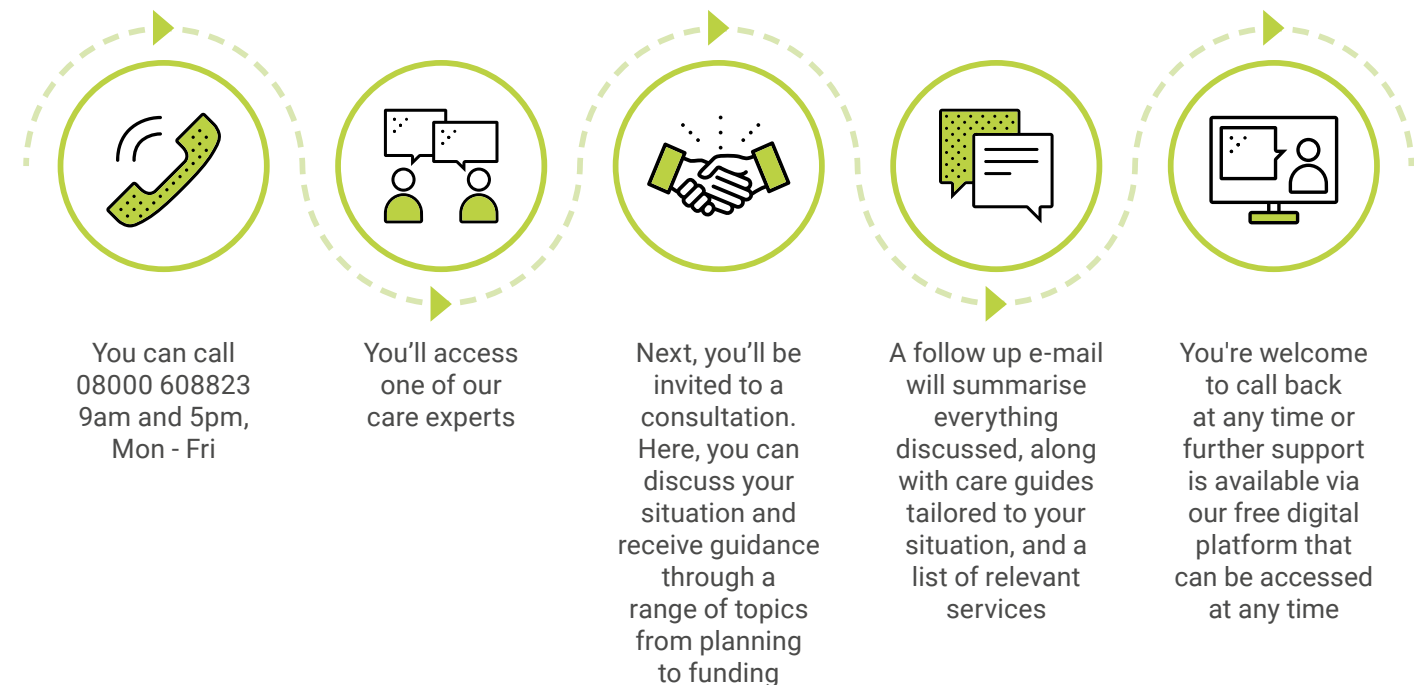

Care Concierge provides telephone guidance service which allows you to speak directly to an expert about finding care and support for a loved one. You can access as much help as you need and be supported to find the right adult care, regardless of what type.

There can be big questions to answer when going through the process of finding care. Knowing how to, can be very difficult. They could include:

- > Is power of attorney in place?
- > What type of care is available for my loved one, and how do I find it?
- > When and how do I request a care needs assessment from my local authority?
- > How much will it cost and who pays for it?
- > Are benefits available to me?
- > What questions should I be asking care providers?

Care Concierge can provide you with immediate access to support that will help you tackle these challenging questions - and guide you through your individual situations for an adult aged 18 and over.

How it works

When Susannah needed care for her Uncle Robert

Legal & General's Care Concierge was "an absolute lifesaver" when Susannah needed help for her Uncle Robert, in his 70s.

- 1. Susannah's Uncle Robert had shut himself off from his family and friends after losing his wife, Dianne. Upon hearing he'd had a stay in hospital, Susannah and other family members tried to make contact. But still fiercely independent, Uncle Robert didn't respond.
- 2. When Susannah returned later that week things had taken a turn for the worse, and she called the local GP for help, who arranged an ambulance. Robert had been overwhelmed by his medication and stopped taking it. Adding to his confusion, he had both kidney and urinary tract infections.
- 3. The Covid restrictions in at the time, meant Susannah couldn't go into the hospital with Robert, and she drove home feeling desperately sad about not knowing what to do. But then a work colleague suggested she call Legal & General's Care Concierge, which changed the situation a great deal.
- 4. "I can't impress enough – the expert I spoke to was an absolute lifesaver. She let me get everything off my chest then gave me options to think about, including other people I could talk to and where we could access emergency funding if needed. We talked a few times and she was absolutely amazing and stopped me panicking."
- 5. Some weeks after being discharged from hospital, Robert fell outside his flat, cracking his collar bone. Susannah said, "At that point, we thought about some kind of emergency care home, but Robert is a very private person and I don't think he would have liked that. I was able to get social services involved and they arranged care visits within his home, initially twice a day to make sure he was eating properly and able to take his medication. He is still having a carer visit, just in the morning, but he is doing much better now."
- 6. To conclude, Susannah said: "I can't speak highly enough of the Care Concierge team. They were there when we needed them, and I don't know what we would have done without them."
