

Letter of Wishes

It's important to keep the Letter of Wishes along with your trust and policy documents.

Please do not return this document to Legal & General.

IMPORTANT NOTES – before completing the Letter of Wishes, please read the following notes.

1. This document should be reviewed by you and your legal advisers. The contents of the Letter of Wishes will depend on your individual circumstances. Legal & General and its advisers aren't responsible for making sure this Letter of Wishes meets your needs.

You should give your trustees as much information as possible about how you wish them to run the trust. This will put them in the best position to do this.

It's important that you regularly review your Letter of Wishes. That way, you can update it as your circumstances, or those of your children, change.
2. In this Letter of Wishes, you (the Settlor/Donor/Grantee) explain your wishes to the Trustees. This will guide them for how to manage the Trust fund with the powers you've given them. The Letter isn't legally binding on the Trustees.
3. You should be aware that Beneficiaries may have a right to see this Letter, but this will depend on the circumstances. The Letter shouldn't be signed before the Trust Deed has been completed.
4. Legal & General has drafted this Letter of Wishes to reflect the law at the time of this publication. Legal & General and its advisers cannot accept any responsibility for loss, damage or other claim that may arise from the use of this Letter of Wishes or the way in which you complete it. We therefore strongly recommend that you consult your own legal adviser before proceeding. Failure to understand the terms of this Letter of Wishes may affect its suitability and effectiveness.
5. Use CAPITALS and black or blue ink throughout. If you make a mistake while completing the Letter of Wishes, please correct the error by crossing out (do not use correction fluid) and the Settlor/Donor/Grantee should initial by the change.
6. By signing this form, and if required by Legal & General, the Trustees agree to take all reasonable steps to obtain for Legal & General evidence of identification for any of the Beneficiaries of the Trust.

Letter of Wishes to the Trustees of the Declaration of Trust

The Settlor/Donor/Grantee should read Important Notes on page 1 before completing the Letter of Wishes.

Policy number

Please provide the policy number in the space below.

A Letter of Wishes

Please insert the start date of the Trust in the box.

Please insert the full names of the Settlor/Donor/Grantee and the original Trustees of the Declaration of Trust in the spaces marked (1) and (2) respectively.

To the Trustees for time being of the Declaration made on

Between (1)

And (2)

2. Construction

- 2.1 In this Letter of Wishes words importing the singular shall include the plural and vice versa.
- 2.2 The notes in the margin are for the purposes of information only and shall not be used in the construction of this Letter of Wishes or any part of it.
- 2.3 Legal & General shall mean Legal & General Assurance Society Limited.

B The letter

This letter is intended to explain the aims which you had in mind in setting up the Trust, your family background, other circumstances which you think are relevant.

Insert here what you believe is the main purpose of your Trust.
For example, "To provide for my children throughout their education."

If needed, include details of any of the following: the priority of the Beneficiaries, whether certain Beneficiaries should only receive funds in the case of death of all your children or whether a spouse/civil partner takes a special position.

For example, "My wife should take priority over the rest of the Beneficiaries."

If needed, include details of factors that you would want to be considered by the Trustees when they are dividing monies between classes of Beneficiaries.

For example, "My four daughters should get 50% of the total and this should be split in equal shares."

The Declaration (specified in Part A) confers discretionary powers on you and I appreciate that I cannot fetter your discretion or determine the way in which you exercise your powers. In the hope that this may be of help to you in exercising your discretionary powers within the Declaration, but without imposing any that or other binding obligations on you or seeking to prevent you from acting as you think best in light of changing circumstances, I would ask you to have regard to my wishes expressed below.

Overall aims

Beneficiaries – priority amongst beneficiaries

Principles of selection amongst beneficiaries and factors to be taken into account

BThe letter continued

If needed, insert details.
For example, "My son, David, should not receive payments from the Legal & General life assurance policy until he is 18."

Ages at which beneficiaries should receive all or part of the income or all or part of the capital

If needed, insert details.
For example, "If any of my children should divorce, I would not wish any funds to be transferred to their former spouse."

The position of spouses or civil partner of beneficiaries, particularly in relation to divorce

Insert the details of people you may wish the trustees to consult with.
Details of professional advisors to be consulted should also be included in here.

Consultation

My wishes are subject to any amendments which I may communicate to you either orally or in writing during my lifetime.

CSignatures

The Settlor/
Donor/Grantee signature(s) can be witnessed but this is not essential.

If there is no
Second Settlor/
Donor/Grantee then leave the box blank.

Signature

Date
(DD/MM/YYYY)In the presence of witness (full name of witness)Signature of witnessAddress of witnessDate
(DD/MM/YYYY)

Place

First (or sole) Settlor/Donor/GranteeSecond Settlor/Donor/Grantee*Witness*Witness

It's important to keep the Letter of Wishes along with your trust and policy documents.

Please do not return this document to Legal & General.

Alternative formats

Please let us know if you would like a copy of this in large print, braille, PDF or in an audio format. To do this, you can call us on 0370 010 4080. We may record and monitor calls. Call charges will vary.

legalandgeneral.com

Legal and General Assurance Society Limited

Registered in England and Wales No. 00166055

Registered office: One Coleman Street, London EC2R 5AA

Legal and General Assurance Society Limited is authorised by the Prudential Regulation Authority and regulated by the Financial Conduct Authority and the Prudential Regulation Authority.

W13092 02/25

